

Anno's One Fine Day Jan - Dec 2022 Report

2022 Started off slow with school opening and we were very privileged to have Anno's Arts help us in making sure that the creative classes in the school term run smoothly . We had 3 classes happening during the year, 1 at the KAG school and the other two classes happened at the Anno's One Fine Day Art center in Kibera . The Creative classes are as follows .

- Music Brian Kepher
- Visual Art Linet Ambiyi
- African Dance Consolata Nduta
- Ballet Melvin Magina & Jackton Atullo
- Acrobatics Samuel, Kevin, Beth and Irungu
- Creative Writing Paul Kades
- Reading Club Umi Rajab
- Drama BenJuma Ondago

Some of the highlights of the classes include :

Music Class.

The music class started off by enrolling new students and the teacher had the privilege to start teaching them harmonicas and then introduced a choir for the students, in future we will be able to have an Anno's One Fine Day childrens' choir that can participate in various festivals.

Anno's Africa was able to help us purchase a keyboard to make it easier for the Music teacher to teach the children. We have 52 boys and girls in the music class.

African Dance:

The African dance registered new students which is very exciting and they were able to work on different choreographies. In May they were able to be part of the cultural activities that happened at the Alliance française to help raise funds for Ukraine.

They also were able to perform at the Climate story lab that happened in Kenya, where dialogue was held around climate change. The dance was the opening act .

Reading Club

We were able to start off a reading club at the art center with all the children, with the help of Friend from Denmark, Dino who lives in Kenya. The reading club is mainly to let the children read books and improve on their listening skills and also reading skills and eventually grow it into creative writing. The children were excited to have this new club introduced to them because they attended in large numbers every Saturday at the Art center . We have 100 children in the reading club and also had to seek for volunteers to join in to help read for the children.

New School Brainstorm

We were also able to start off the creative classes with a new school called Brainstorm which is very close to the AOFD art center and they ran the creative classes . We enrolled an additional 800 children in the program who will be able to have access to the creative classes.

Transition to High School .

The students who had just graduated from primary school and were ready to join high school had a day's session with the trainers where they were encouraged to work hard at school and given tips on how to manage friendships as they transitioned from primary school to secondary school.

We had 10 primary school children who we enrolled into secondary school, 5 of whom Anno's Arts are paying for their school fee they enrolled on the Anno's Arts Educationals Scholarship namely

1. Abigael Ombasa
2. Christine
3. Pauline
4. Isaac
5. Flavian

They were excited to join form 1 which is their first year in high school, they will attend high school for the next 4 years . They all passed their National Examinations and they have been very steady in their exams throughout the year .

Despite starting off with a B+ and closing with a C+, Abiagael has a huge potential of Improving to get higher grades. Her dream is to change her family situation and become a Resourceful person in the country

Christine is very spirited in community service, she has a vision at her young age and believes her entry High school will mold her into becoming what she aspires to be. She started off with a B+ and has kept it steady.

So impressed that Isaac has devoted himself to the notion of spirituality with a goal to be a good Person not just to his family but to everyone who comes across him. He started off with a B- closing with The same grade of 5 points higher. He however has promised to strive for higher grades

A very dedicated young girl who wants to reach her dream, Pauline started off with a B plain then got a B+ Despite closing with a B- she was very quick to identify where she slowed down and has promised to work Hard in the next academic year

A very patient and polite young girl, Flevian started off with a C+ and closed with a D- she has since Come forth to discuss her academic matters and hopes to improve next year through a different approach.

When school had a break we were able to run various activities with the children at the AOFD art center especially for the students both high school and primary school students .

Apart from the students participating in their normal creative art classes, they were taken through different sessions with different teachers, so that they are equipped to deal with what is ahead of them. The main topic tackled during this period were :

- Self Concept (Philosophy of life) By Kevin Oduor
- Etiquette/mannerism (public/social media) By Beth Waigwe
- Sexuality and Relationships By Ambiyio
- Mental Health Awareness / Drug & substance Abuse - Counsellor
- How to gain reputation : Truthfulness By Consolata
- Academic Goal Setting and Career Establishment By Njoroge and Wangui
- Plenary Session on High School Challenges

We were privileged to have a new connection, some of our teachers are now working in partnership with the french school in Nairobi .They do work once a week and teach different creative classes. We managed to sign a 1 year contract which started in October 2022 and will last through to July 2023. The creative classes taught are Choral, Creative Arts, African Dance,

Ballet, Drama, Gymnastics and Musical awareness.

This was such a great relief because then at least the teachers get paid once a week by the french school which substitutes from our end .
